

you know that he is a trustworthy man & whether you think well of his work; for in this case I would aid him myself to a certain extent. I trust that you will forgive me for thus troubling you, & I should be very much obliged by an early answer.

I remain, my dear Sir

Yours very faithfully

Charles Darwin